The Centers for Disease Control reports that 55% of female homicides are committed by an intimate partner or family member. And the reality is that the violence does not remain behind closed doors. On the LAST FRIDAY IN OCTOBER, join us as we take a stand. MyHarmonyHouse.org/icare

STAND UP. SPEAK OUT. GET INVOLVED.

"In order to prevent and tackle gender-related killing of women and girls, men need to be involved in efforts to combat intimate partner violence/family-related homicide and in changing cultural norms that move away from violent masculinity and gender stereotypes." United Nations
